COURSE DESCRIPTION
A survey of British literature 1660–1900. Lecture and discussion. The aim of this course is to furnish you with close knowledge of the most important writers and works from the Restoration to the end of the Victorian age.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS
Regular attendance, on-time submission of all papers, attentive reading and preparation of assigned material, and full participation in class discussion. Required writing includes three critical-analytic papers, each around five pages long (45% of final grade); occasional quizzes and in-class writing (10% of final grade); and three examinations (45% of final grade): one on the Restoration and the Eighteenth Century, one on the Romantic Period, and one on the Victorian Age.

Students are required to purchase the textbooks below in print form and to bring the appropriate volume to each class for reference during discussion. Electronic or online versions are not allowed in this course, and all electronic devices must be turned off and stowed for the duration of each class.

REQUIRED TEXTS
The following three volumes of the Norton Anthology of English Literature, ed. Stephen Greenblatt et al. (9th edition):
Volume E, The Victorian Age, $48.75, ISBN 978–0–393–91253–1

NOTE: All three volumes C, D, and E may be purchased together for a special price, $86.00 list, ISBN 978–0–393–12983–0
