

CLAS 230: Classical Mythology

Spring 2014 (28736)

MW 10:00-10:50am; F sections

Cross-listed with Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

Medea and dragon chariot, Lucanian Red Figure krater, ca. 400 BCE; Cleveland Museum of Art

Why is Medea driving a dragon chariot while wearing a funny hat?

We'll discover the answer to that question as we read many of the crazy stories the Greeks and Romans told about what happens when the divine and human worlds meet.