

Languages, Cultures, & International Trade

Awards, Scholarships & You!

For 2017!

THE DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGES, CULTURES, & INTERNATIONAL TRADE OFFERS AN ASSORTMENT OF AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS.

Gwendolyn Conrad & Isaac Parsons Brackett Memorial Scholarship

Up to $1000 for study abroad to undergraduate students specializing in French, or International Studies or Foreign Language and International Trade (FLIT) program with French as their primary language.

Mary Eleanor Buschek Award for Foreign Language Study

$1000 to students who have Languages, Cultures, and International Studies as their first major. Renewable for up two years. Preference given to incoming freshman or incoming transfer students.

Mary Eleanor Buschek Travel Award

$2000 to Languages, Cultures, and International Studies majors for study abroad.

Marie Jose Southworth Award for Achievement in Foreign Languages & Literatures

$300 to a foreign language or Languages, Cultures, and International Studies major currently enrolled in a foreign language course.

Madeleine Smith Memorial Scholarship

$900 to a Languages, Cultures, and International Studies major specializing in French, or International Studies or FLIT with French as their primary foreign language.

Wilma Hughes Ochs Classics Scholarship

Up to $1000 to an incoming or current Languages, Cultures, and International Studies major specializing in Classics.

For more information, such as application procedures, full requirements and criteria, go to <http://cola.siu.edu/languages/awards-scholarships/> or go to <http://cola.siu.edu/languages/> and look for Awards & Scholarships.