

Mary Eleanor Buschek Award for Foreign Language Study

Award Value: $1000.00 per year!

This award will support two undergraduate students pursuing a foreign language or a Languages, Cultures, and International Studies major at SIUC and is open to all full-time undergraduate students with a current foreign language or students with the intention to specialize in a foreign language. The award is renewable for up to two years.

Application deadline is January 31, 2018.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

- Full-time, undergraduate student attending SIUC in the Fall & Spring of the award year. Preference given to incoming freshmen, incoming transfer students, and first year students
- Have an incoming or overall GPA of 3.0 & a major GPA of at least 3.25.
- Declare and maintain as a first major any specialization offered by the Department of Languages, Cultures, and International Trade such as Classics, East Asian Languages and Cultures, Foreign Language and International Trade (FLIT), French, German, International Studies, and Spanish.

Full criteria and application materials available at languages.siu.edu or from the Department of Languages, Cultures, & International Trade in Faner 2166.

Please send completed application and transcript to:

Department of Languages, Cultures, and International Trade
1000 Faner Dr, MC 4521
Southern Illinois University
Carbondale, IL 62901

Got questions? Call 618-536-5571, email cklayman@siu.edu, or stop by Faner Room 2166.

SIU Southern Illinois
University
CARBONDALE