Course Description: This course provides an introduction to a literacies-based approach to language teaching focusing on critical integration of texts, intercultural understanding, and language proficiency development (Paisani & Menke, 2023). Through theoretical and practical approaches, students will learn how to empower students, promote social justice language education and design instruction for TESOL and World Languages contexts through a multiliteracies pedagogical approach.