Journey into the stories that ancient Greeks told about their gods, heroes, and monsters — from the major Olympian gods to minor Dryads and Nymphs, from mighty Titans and Giants to mischievous Centaurs and monstrous Minotaurs, from heroic human warriors to murderous fathers and sorcerous mothers.

You will encounter many names familiar to you — Zeus and Athena, Hades and Poseidon, Achilles and Hercules and Odysseus — but also many other figures unknown to you, figures whose stories nonetheless will fire your imagination, sear your consciousness, and enter your dreams.

NOTE: This course satisfies the Humanities Core Curriculum.

Questions? Email Dr. Mont Allen: montallen@siu.edu