

INTERCULTURAL DIALOGUE [SPECIAL TOPICS COURSE]

This special topics online hybrid (asynchronous and synchronous) course will focus on the theory and practice of intercultural dialogue, which is the process of open and respectful communication between culturally different individuals and groups. The course will take a case studies approach so students can get experience in unpacking complex and specific intercultural situations through a dialogic lens and discover pathways for communicating across difficult differences.

CMST 493 (OPEN TO GRADUATE STUDENTS)
SUMMER 2024 (FIRST SESSION, 6/10/24 - 7/7/24)
MONDAYS & THURSDAYS - 10 AM-12 PM (SYNCHRONOUS)
TUESDAYS, WEDNESDAYS & FRIDAYS (ASYNCHRONOUS)

INSTRUCTOR: NILANJANA BARDHAN (BARDHAN@SIU.EDU)

