

Sunday, Sunday, Sunday... is Joust Day!

Tall Ears

(Wolfram von Eschenbach)

Vs.

Eagle Head!

(Hartmann von Aue)

Who will win the right...

to wave back to the duchess of Lower Upper Lesser Saxony from a discreet distance?

It's actually a pretty big deal.

LCIS 200b Medieval German Epic and Romance

May 12-June 6, 2025

M-F 9-11 a.m. online

Dr. Chris Chiasson

Fulfills the UCC Fine Arts requirement

Email christopher.chiasson@siu.edu for more information

Hartmann von Aue, Wolfram von Eschenbach, and Gottfried von Strassburg wrote the masterworks of Medieval German literature between 1180 and 1220. Famous for their love potions, the Holy Grail, and fight scenes, they also address thorny questions about chivalry, Christian ethics, courtly love, and adultery. Come find out more!