“Art and Culture in the Scottish Landscape”

The SIUC Interdisciplinary Experience in

• SCOTLAND •

May 15 to June 3, 2014

• School of Art and Design
• Department of Cinema and Photography
• School of Music

• Towns and places visited in past years of the program: Edinburgh, Dundee, Pentland Firth, Stromness, Kirkwall, Glasgow, St. Andrews, Cairngorm National Park, The Highland Glens, Firth of Forth, Kirriemuir, Lunan Bay, Scapa Flow, Dunkeld, The Hermitage, Kingdom of Fife and Loch Ness

• Galleries and museums included: National Gallery of Scotland, Scottish Portrait Gallery, Scottish National Galleries of Modern Art, Royal Scottish Academy, Dundee Contemporary Arts Centre

• Castles (Dunnottar, Earl's Palace, more), gardens, cathedrals, historic houses, standing stone circles, traditional Scottish music, walks in the Glens

• Main residence for your stay: Arbroath’s historic Hospitalfield House (www.hospitalfieldhouse.org.uk), dating back to the 16th century, located just north of Dundee, on the west coast of Scotland, overlooking the North Sea

• Leave for Edinburgh or Glasgow from St. Louis May 15; return to St. Louis June 3 (Arrangements can be made for alternate departure/return airports.)

• 2014 will mark the 22nd year for this SIU program. The program fee includes airfare, lodging, meals in Scotland, all ground travel & one extended, multi-day/night trip to the Orkney Islands via an ocean ferry. The fee for the 2014 program will be $3250 + AIRFARE. (Approximately $4250 total.)

• Any SIU student may participate (non-students may apply for exception)

• Useful websites include the following:
  www.edinburgh.org  www.orkney.com
  www.angusdundee.co.uk  www.nationalgalleries.org

• School of Art: Professor Ed Shay (shay@siu.edu)
• Cinema & Photography: Professor Dan Overturf (dvo0201@siu.edu)
• School of Music: Dr. Kathleen Ginther (kginther@siu.edu)
• Study Abroad contact: Tom Saville (tsaville@siu.edu)