SIUC Foreign Language and International Trade Program (FLIT)
World Cultural Studies Track for Nonnative Speakers of English

DOUBLE YOUR SKILLS FOR BETTER CAREER OPTIONS

Focusing on both business knowledge and language skills, the FLIT program, one of the very few in the country, is an interdisciplinary program featuring courses offered by the College of Liberal Arts and the College of Business.

FLIT graduates are competitive in the global job market because they have:

✓ Versatile skills in intercultural communication and international trade
✓ Practical internship experiences connecting classroom knowledge to the real-world workplace
✓ More opportunities to work at home or abroad
✓ Prospect of becoming a regional manager

World Cultural Studies Courses

For students whose native language is not English, they can focus on a single chosen foreign language (Chinese, Japanese, German, or Spanish) or complete 7 world cultural studies courses taught in English listed below:

ANTH 416, 428; CHIN 370, 410; CLAS 230, 270, 271, 315i, 491; EA 102, 370; ECON 302I; FL 200A, 200B, 200C, 436; INTL 300, 301, 400, 470; JPN 370, 410; LING 341, 415, 417, 341; other electives pre-approved by the Director of FLIT. INTL 300 and 301 strongly recommended.
