

Person & Emotions

April 7-8
2016

Thursday, April 7

Rotunda, Third Floor, Morris Library

9:30 am – 11:00 am

Mariano Crespo, "Feeling as Ground of Striving? The Contribution of Alexander Pfänder," University of Navarra, Spain/ Phenomenology Research Center

11:15 am – 12:45 pm

James Hart, "From Moral Annihilation to Luciferism: The Complex Emotion of Being Violent," Indiana University

Lunch 12:45 – 2:00

2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Monika Benkoová, "The Constitution of the Person through Loving and Being Loved," Trnava University, Slovakia/Phenomenology Research Center

3:45 pm – 5:15 pm

Jakub Čapek, "Degrees of Reality in Us: Merleau-Ponty on Love" Charles University, Czech Republic/Phenomenology Research Center, Carbondale

Friday, April 8

DeJarnett American Heritage Room, Third Floor, Morris Library

9:30 am – 11:00 am

John C. Maraldo, "Learning from Watsuji Tetsurō's Philosophy of Trust and Truthfulness/Sincerity," University of North Florida

11:15 am – 12:45 pm

Jana Trajetlová, "On Elusiveness: Desire, Vocation, and Self-Definition in Western Mysticism," Trnava University, Slovakia

Lunch 12:45 – 2:00

2:00 pm – 3:30 pm

Anthony Steinbock, "The Structure of Vocational Experience and the Meaning of Person," Phenomenology Research Center, Carbondale

3:45 pm – 5:15 pm

Ignacio Quepons, "Vulnerability and Dignity: A Assessment," Seattle University/National Autonomous University of Mexico, Mexico

Phenomenology Research Center, SIU Carbondale