

PHILOSOPHICAL COLLABORATIONS

A Conference for Faculty and Graduate Student Interaction

26th Annual Conference

"One-way Ticket" by Jacob Lawrence

RACE AND THE GOOD LIFE

March 22 - 23, 2018

Thursday, March 22
3:30 p.m.

"Architectural Anti-Blackness and the Decoloniality of Space"

Professor Alfred Frankowski and Graduate Student Donnie McMann,
Southern Illinois University
Carbondale

Commentator: Professor Jean
Pierre Reed, Southern Illinois
University Carbondale

Friday, March 23
9:00 a.m.

"Racism as Self Love"

Professor Grant Silva and Graduate Student Jorge Montiel, Marquette
University

Commentator: Kenneth Stickers,
Southern Illinois University
Carbondale

Friday, March 23
10:45 am

"The Common Good, Aristotle, and the Quest for the Complete Life"

Professor Gregory Beabout and Graduate Student James McGuire,
Saint Louis University

Commentator: Professor Thomas
Alexander, Southern Illinois
University Carbondale

Friday, March 23
1:30 p.m.

"Liberation and Resistance in the Latin American Philosophical Tradition"

Professor Elizabeth Millan and Graduate Student Maria Salvador
Lopez, DePaul University

Commentator: Professor Jean
Pierre Reed, Southern Illinois
University Carbondale

Friday, March 23
6:30 p.m.

(at Giant City Lodge)

Keynote Address

"Nietzsche's Tragic Philosophy and Epistemic Creativity in a Racialized World"

Professor Jacqueline Scott and Graduate Student Robert Budron,
Loyola University of Chicago

All sessions will be held in the STUDENT CENTER, 2nd FLOOR, KASKASKIA AND MISSOURI ROOMS, SIU Campus, Carbondale, Illinois, except for the Keynote that will be held at Giant City Lodge.

For further information, contact Professor Robert Hahn, Department of Philosophy, Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois 62901 • 618-453-7438 or hahn@siu.edu

We gratefully acknowledge generous conference support from Dr. James Garvey, Interim Vice-Chancellor for Research, Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

SIU
Southern Illinois
University
CARBONDALE