The intent of this certificate is to enhance and supplement the student's program of study by providing an interdisciplinary perspective on women, gender and sexuality studies.

Eligible students:

- Currently enrolled in a Graduate Program at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, or
- Have a Bachelor's degree and admitted as an Unclassified Graduate Student
- Must complete the required worksheet and confer with the WGSS Director to register for the Certificate Program

18 semester hours of credit required:

- 12 hours must be at the 500 level
- WGSS 596 and 597 are required, or an equivalent approved by the Director of WGSS
- While it is appropriate for students to take WGSS courses offered within their graduate programs (and these courses may count toward that graduate degree as well as the WGSS graduate certificate), at least 6 hours must be taken outside of the student's area of graduate study

How to complete this form:

- Fill out all the contact information and list your Graduate Program
- Insert the credit hours and the semester the class was taken (3/Spr 15)
- Make sure to list the classes for your current or upcoming semester
- After completing the form save it to your computer and email to wgss@siu.edu
- Update this form every semester and resubmit to us by email
- Let us know when you have completed your coursework so we can notify the Graduate School and they will issue your certificate
- Please keep a copy of the class list for your records
